ENGLISH SPORTING NOTES.

LONDON, March 13.—A pedestrian match is being arranged between Lord Chas. Kerr and the Marquis of Beresford to walk one hundred miles for $5,000.

Oxford and Cambridge Universities' Boat Clubs have declined the challenge for the match at the Centennial. It is expected, however, that each university will send a four to Philadelphia.

A grand Polo match has been arranged by the Union Club of Berlin, to come off the latter part of May, between the officers of the Light Guards and members of the International Gun and Polo Club, the game to be played outside the Brandenburg Gate. There will also be pigeon shooting and horse racing.

Weston is walking another match, and up to 11:45 last night he had made four hundred and fifty miles. He will attempt his five hundred mile feat in a few weeks.

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.

BERLIN, March 13.—Prince Bismarck is determined to exact the fullest satisfaction from China for the plunder of the schooner Anna at Foochow, the Chinese pirates, after murdering the Captain and pilot, being protected by the authorities. The American and British Governments support the German claims. British Admiral Ryder has ordered armed resistance. The Germans will be shortly demanding the ultimatum of the Government, and have reinforced their squadron in Asiatic waters, consisting of four corvettes mounting thirty-four guns, and two gun-boats mounting twelve guns. The British and German squadrons will assemble at Hong Kong for joint action.

THE DANUBE FLOODS.

BUDA PESTH, March 13.—In five small towns, along the river Danube, five hundred and twenty-one houses collapsed from the 7th to the 9th instant in consequence of their foundations being damaged by the floods. In Pesth and suburbs it is impossible to count the houses that have been ruined. If the inundation continues, huge blocks of houses in this city must fall. On the 8th instant a large island, Ezepe, below Pesth, containing five villages, was submerged and all the houses except five swept away.

CROOKHAVEN ISLAND.

March 13.—The English steamer California, Captain Le-raw, from Glasgow the 4th inst., via Morelli, the 5th inst. for New York, was boarded last night five miles west of Millethead. The Captain reports that his vessel on the 7th inst. lost the blades of her propeller and he had to lay up for repairs. The steamer will be towed to Queenstown.

HOME FOR DON CARLOS.

PARIS, March 13.—Don Carlos shortly goes to Graz, Austria, where he proposes to settle permanently.

FLOODS IN ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND.

LONDON, March 13.—Severe storms prevailed in England and Scotland Saturday. Great damage to property is reported, and the rivers are still rising rapidly threatening further floods.

ERIK RISING.

A Times financial article to-day says demand for Erie stock is increasing and prices are rising in consequence of the rise at New York.

NEW YORK.

The Weather.—Belknap's Programme.—High Life Element in England.—Has Daniel Drew Failed?

By American Press Association to the STAR.

NEW YORK, March 13.—A heavy rain storm prevailed here this morning accompanied by thunder and lightning. The weather is mild and very foggy.

A Washington special to the Herald says, there is the best authority for saying that it was the intention Saturday night of Ex-Secretary Belknap to send into the House of Representatives a request for an investigation into his official discharge of duty in the disbursement of more than $300,000,000 of the various officers of the subordinate departments to be examined to show his honesty in this particular, but a change of programme has been decided on and the request will not now be sent.

A London special says Lord Aylesford's wife has eloped with the Marquis of Blandford, eldest son of the Duke of Marlborough. The elopement is the absolute standing was quite emphatic in his statements, and left the impression that the testimony which he is about to present to Congress will undoubtedly implicate Senator Sargent.

It is alleged by a writer in the Tribune that the entire public service on the coast is run by Senator Sargent in the interest of the Westinghouse Electric and Light Company, Internal Revenue and District Attorney's offices are filled with men subject to his orders, and that he is all-powerful in Washington to protect them in office. The same authority states that Secretary Bristow and Commissioner Pratt are cognizant of these facts, have ample proof of the frauds, and could bring the guilty parties to punishment if they desired to do so. According to the statement of Mr. Phillips, every obstacle is placed in the way of revenue officers from the East who seek to ferret out corruption at San Francisco, although it is well understood that fraud exists, and the conclusion is that the members of the Pacific Ring and the joy protection from some powerful official source. Mr. Phillips states that revenue officers and the Ring made common cause to prevent him from gaining information, and every move he made was reported simultaneously in the Revenue offices and Ring headquarters.

WHISKY—BLACK HILLS—POLITICAL.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The death of Collector J. D. Webster will probably interfere to a certain extent with the prosecution of the whisky cases, though it is believed that ample testimony can be secured from other sources.

Ex-Collector Wadsworth, whose name has for the first time been connected with the Ring, declares that he never received a dollar, and courts investigation.

The specials from the Black Hills are most conflicting. The excitement is on the increase, and the tide of travel in the direction of the Hills very heavy.

The best informed assert that no work can be done in the Hills before June, and that it is suicidal to attempt a visit before that time.

The Wisconsin State Convention of the People's Reform Party is called to meet at Milwaukee June 7.

A $30,000 Heist.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 13.—Five masked thieves entered the house of James Crosby, a farmer, living near Farmer Station, on the Northern New Jersey Railroad, yesterday morning, and took off $30,000 in U. S. bonds and $10,000 in silver-ware and jewelry.

He Left on the Steamer.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

HOBOKEN, N. J., March 13.—John Soales, a wealthy real estate broker and speculator, is said to have started for Europe on a recent steamer, having liabilities amounting to nearly half a million dollars. Prior to leaving he assigned all his valuables &c. to his wife, whom he left behind. She claims that he will return and effect a compromise with his creditors.

Warmth Not to be Senator.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—The report that Kellogg would appoint Ex-Governor Warmth to the position of Senator, in place of Pinchback, is denied on authority.

Minor Mentions.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

BEN. FARMAN, the colored white-washer, who has been accused of appropriating a pocket-book and contents picked up by him on the premises of Mrs. Caldwell, where he was at work, was dismissed this morning. Mr. Tom. Lupton, of the firm of McAlpin, Polk & Co., where Farmman has worked for the last five years, gave him an excellent character for honesty, as did other witnesses; and as the money was returned by Farmman, his case was dismissed.

On 'Change.

The following Committee was appointed on 'Change to-day by President Holloway, to draft suitable resolutions on the death of the late Jason Evans: Richard Smith, James McKeehan, Chas. Davis, S. Taylor, Josiah L. Keck.

The members of the Chamber are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of deceased to-morrow.

The Allen Murder.

The investigation before the Coroner is still in progress. Several witnesses were examined this morning. Among the number were J. P. Hogan, station agent of the Little Miami Railroad, Henry Smith, Sarah A. Glau, of Columbia, Sidney H. Baldwin and Kate Weidrecht, the evidence of whom is of no material importance, save perhaps that of the last mentioned, who is a niece of the deceased, and that which follows:

Kate Weidrecht testified—I live in Columbia, and about a year and a half ago I was at the house of my brother-in-law, Enos Woods, in Columbia, when the deceased came in. While there I saw him and him if the boy (meaning Ed. Tibbs) had said what I heard he had, and was it true, referring to the time the attempt was made to chloroform him. He said he caught the boy Ed. Tibbs by the arm, and as soon as he caught him he said "Don't shoot, Uncle Jake, we are not going to hurt you." Then he got out. He then looked at me and said there was a man and woman outside. The woman was Mahala Brown, and just then some one spoke to him and he
